

Director of Human Resources

Director of Human resources to lead LogicTree's human resource management, including recruitment and compensation.

Responsibilities

- Support areas/locations of the Business by providing HR excellence thru leadership in organizational development, including conflict management, coaching, counseling, compensation and performance management
- Provide staffing and recruiting support
- Lead Compensation and Benefits administration
- Provide counsel regarding Compliance with key government legislated requirements
- Manage HR Policies and Procedures
- Promote the right environment to support the organization's vision and culture
- Ability to effectively manage organizational change

Requirements

- 6+ year's experience with strong, broad generalist skills
- Self-directed
- Superb communication/presentation skills among all levels of the organization
Strong analytical, process and systems skills
B.A. in Human Resources Management or related field